The 1966 ORAN is dedicated to Miss Elsa Jane Carroll, in appreciation for the continual encouragement that she has given to the Class of '66. To juniors Miss Carroll is a teacher, to seniors she is an advisor, but to all she is a friend. Many things will be forgotten by the seniors in leaving, however the memories of Miss Carroll and her dauntless spirit will not be one of them.

of Nineteen Sixty-Six

The Class of '66 has shown its leadership ability in academic, social, and athletic endeavors. The seniors in general have excelled in scholarship, but have diversified their interests, as can be seen through the wide range of schools they will attend. The "Teahouse of the August Moon" and "The Night of January 16th" proved to be the most successful plays ever presented at Orange High School, not only through material gains for the Class of '66, but through intellectual experiences realized by the participants as well. Four senior members of the football team were unanimously chosen to the All-League defensive team, while the bowling team, anchored by seniors, reigned victoriously as City Champions. A senior won the distinction of being the first wrestler from Orange to go to the State Tournament. In the spring, the golf and tennis teams brought further recognition and honor to Orange and to the Class of '66.

THE NIGHT OF JANUARY 16th was a unique play because the cast was not composed solely of seniors. The jury of twelve was selected from the audience and was made up of teachers and parents. This "impartial" jury found the defendant, Jeanne Capak, not guilty on both nights. The Senior play was dramatic, suspenseful, and humorous—a big success for the Class of '66.

You Mean she was guilty?!

Friendly reactions as Jeanne gets life.

T'ain't no big thing, Jim.

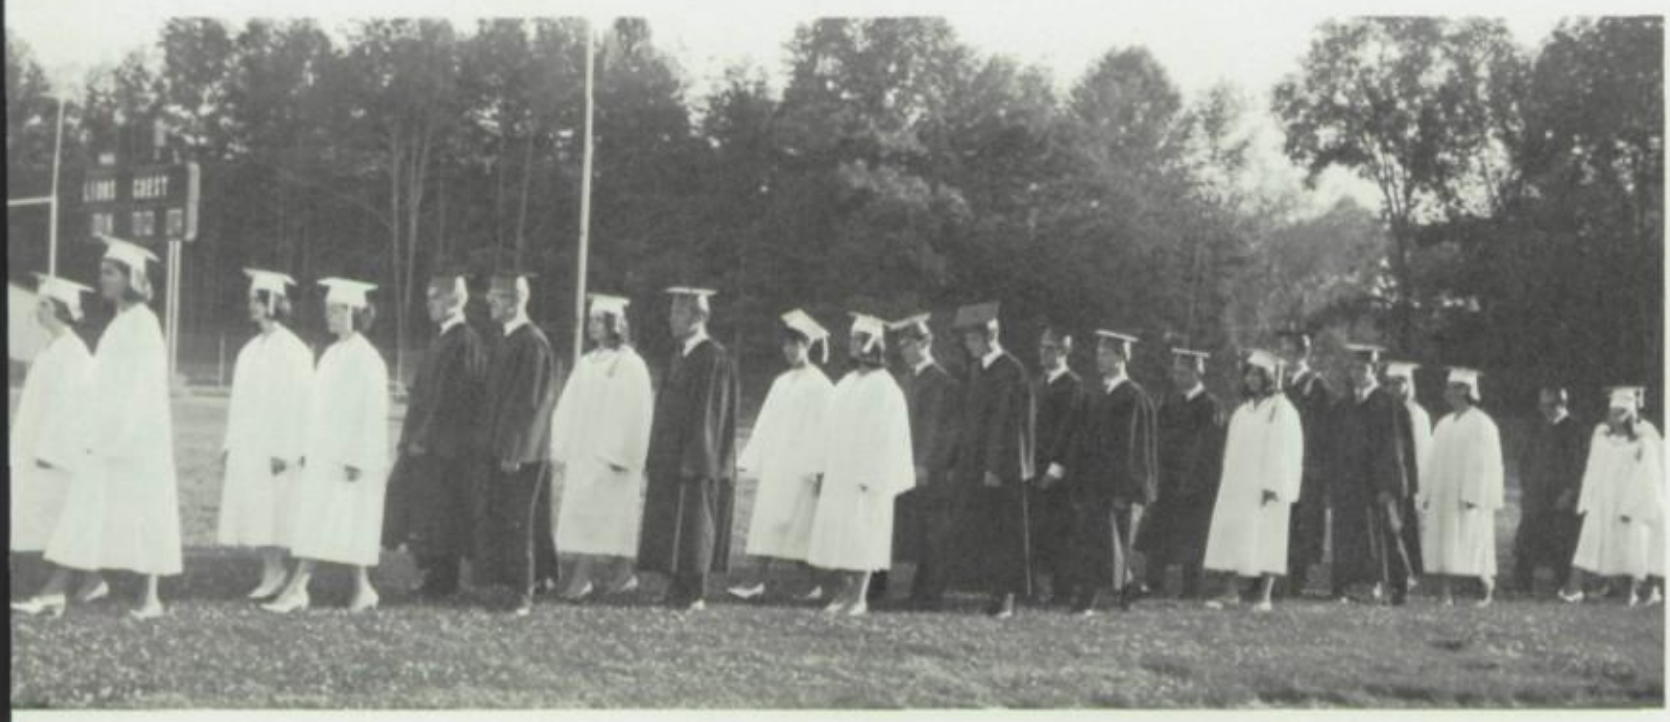
COMMENCEMENT for the Class of '66 was a first. The ceremony was conducted on the football field as the seniors finally attained their goal. Memories of high school, some short, some long, crowded the thoughts of the seniors as they once again became freshmen.

Close only counts in horseshoes.

Glowing adjectives in the glowing sunset.

But Steve, age before beauty!

What's he talking about?



We shall overcome.

CLASSMEN

JUNIORS A true indication of the success of a class can be shown by its accomplishments. The Class of '67 was as active as any other; they charmed the audiences with "The Father of the Bride", planned the Jr.-Sr. Prom at the Shaker House, and pioneered the new school ring. In addition to these activities the Juniors carry a heavy academic load, which includes Chemistry, U.S. History, American Lit., and Algebra II. Among the distinguish members of the class are Debbie Studsguard, our A.F.S. representative in Iran for the summer, Spencer and Mike—the leaders, and the Bob Youngs—the athletes.

What's my line?

"Rocky the flying squirrel"?

Watch a pro

The excitement and tension of wedding preparations were vividly presented by the Junior Class in its production of THE FATHER OF THE BRIDE on March 27 & 28. Through the great acting and adlibbing of the cast and the leads, Brian Akers, Sue Albrecht, Leslie Davies, and Jim Heard, and under the direction of Mrs. Barbara Pape, the Class of '67 created a delightful evening of entertainment.

SOPHOMORE Fred Vencl, class president, along with Thom Myers, Sherry Schmeidt, and Don Hanzel led the class of '68 into a year of success and fun. The year began in the fall when Rob Eger led the J.V. football squad. As the snow began to fall Ken Shaw took over and became the Sophomores' leading man on the J.V. basketball team. To add to the successes Steve Jobes was the only undefeated member of the tennis squad. The Sophomore class wasn't all work and no "play though." With the coming of April a dance, "The Spring Thing," was held to the beat of the "Herd," and here's hoping their upbeat tempo carries over with next year's Class of '68.

FRESHMEN are those individuals who were so brutally picked upon by the Seniors. They tried hard to be "in", those tight pants, long hair, and the surfer shirts all became the symbols of the new "Pepsi generation". The class officers this year were Dave Ondrey, President, Tom Ondrey, Vice-President, and Dick Kaspers, Secretary.

SOCIAL

WELCOME DANCE climaxed a Student Council campaign to welcome new students and to revive returning students with new spirit. Indeed spirit ran high, for the dance followed the first pep rally, the first football game, the first victory of the year. As well as making new friends, students met for the first time the now popular band, the Rebel Kind. The theme was "Welcome a-Go-Go" and as the name indicates, the dance set the pace for an exciting and fast-moving year.

MILITARY BALL was highlighted by the crowning of vivacious head majorette Corde Helms, escorted by Dale Caldwell. Corde was attended by Beverly Blair and Dave Stenger, Melissa Markey and Bill Scheerer, Marie Suchy and Dick Dunfee, and Martha Wright and Tom Saby. The Dance followed a dinner honoring all band members and majorettes. It was an enjoyable reward for a season of hard work and fine performances.

The Court

The Royal Couple

THE HOMECOMING DANCE topped the "Autumn Leaves" weekend with music by the Upstarts. The cafeteria was appropriately decorated with large painted leaves surrounding the Queen and her court. Queen Sue Carleton, escorted by Jim Benes, was crowned by Mr. Richard Morvilius at the Orange-Twinsburg football game October 8. Sue's attendents were Debbie Cirincione and Ted Mazzulo, Barb Cook and Jon Munson, Sally March and Ken Wright, and Pam Wise and Bill Kaspers. The rainy, wet weather hardly dampened the spirits of all those who attended the first major dance of the year.

Homecoming Court

King John Myers

THE WINTER FORMAL heightened the usual excitement and anticipation of the holiday season. On the night of December 18, the gym was transformed into a glittering spectacle of winter scenes accenting the theme "Silver Bells". This year's formal was sponsored by all the girls' clubs including Y-Teens cheerleaders, Gals, Office Assistants, Future Nurses, and Usherettes. A multitude of bands provided the music as the peak of excitement came as John Myers was crowned King of the Formal. John was accompanied by Georgeann Battiato. Completing the king's court were Jim Benes and Sue Carleton, Bill Maynard and Liz Stein, Jim Rondini and Marianne Weber, and Jim Wagenlander and Judy Capes.

SWEETHEART SWING

made a romantic background for Valentine's Day this year. The boys put together their brains and brawn to come up with a delicate and enchanting hearts and cupids atmosphere. Charming Barb Cook, escorted by Jim Wagenlander, was crowned by Varsity "O" president Steve Boaz. Attendants were Georgeann Battiato and John Myers, Carol Foremen and John MacClennan, Gayle Korman and Jim Novak, and Pam Wise and Bill Kaspers. Couples danced to the music of the Levis.

Barb Cook—Queen

SADIE HAWKINS it was decided by the Class of '66, was the best decorated, most entertaining, and most tummy-filling of the year. Huge caricatures of favorite comic strip characters carried out the theme of "Comic Capers." Some watched movies and old Howdie Doodie re-runs in the multi-purpose room (converted to a theater) while more energetic couples danced in the cafeteria. Platters of cold cuts and cheeses were set out for make-your-own Dagwoods, while Kick-a-poo Joy Juice was served on the side. All those who attended agreed it was a riotous affair.

Sue and Dave

THE PROM had finally come, as girls in long evening gowns accompanied by their smartly-suited escorts emerged from their cars into the Shaker House to celebrate Prom weekend "In the Still of the Night". The couples danced to the music of the Eddie Platt Combo from nine to twelve. However, before the bewitching hour had arrived, John Myers and Georgeann Battiato were crowned King and Queen of the Prom, royally attended by Jim Benes and Sue Carleton, Dave Cameron and Sue Myerholtz, Dick Dunfee and Marianne Weber, and Bill Kaspers and Pam Wise. The stars twinkled gayly in the sky as the couples again got into their cars before turning into beachcombers for the After-Prom Party.

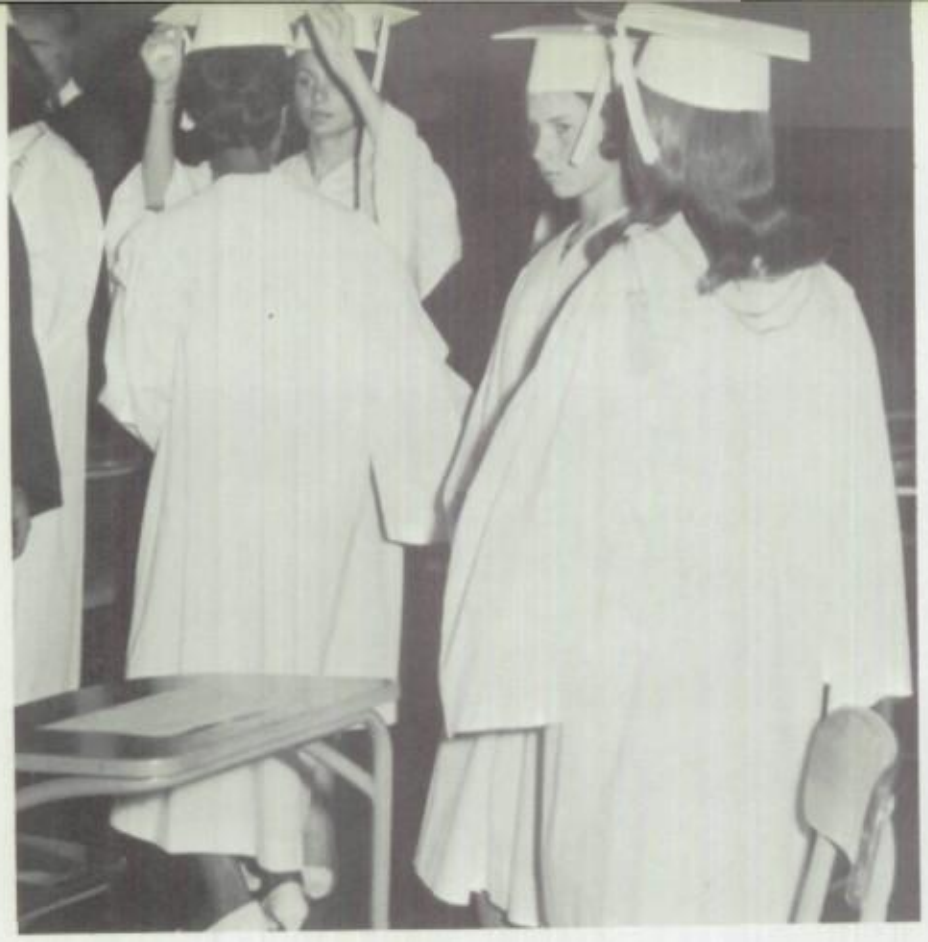
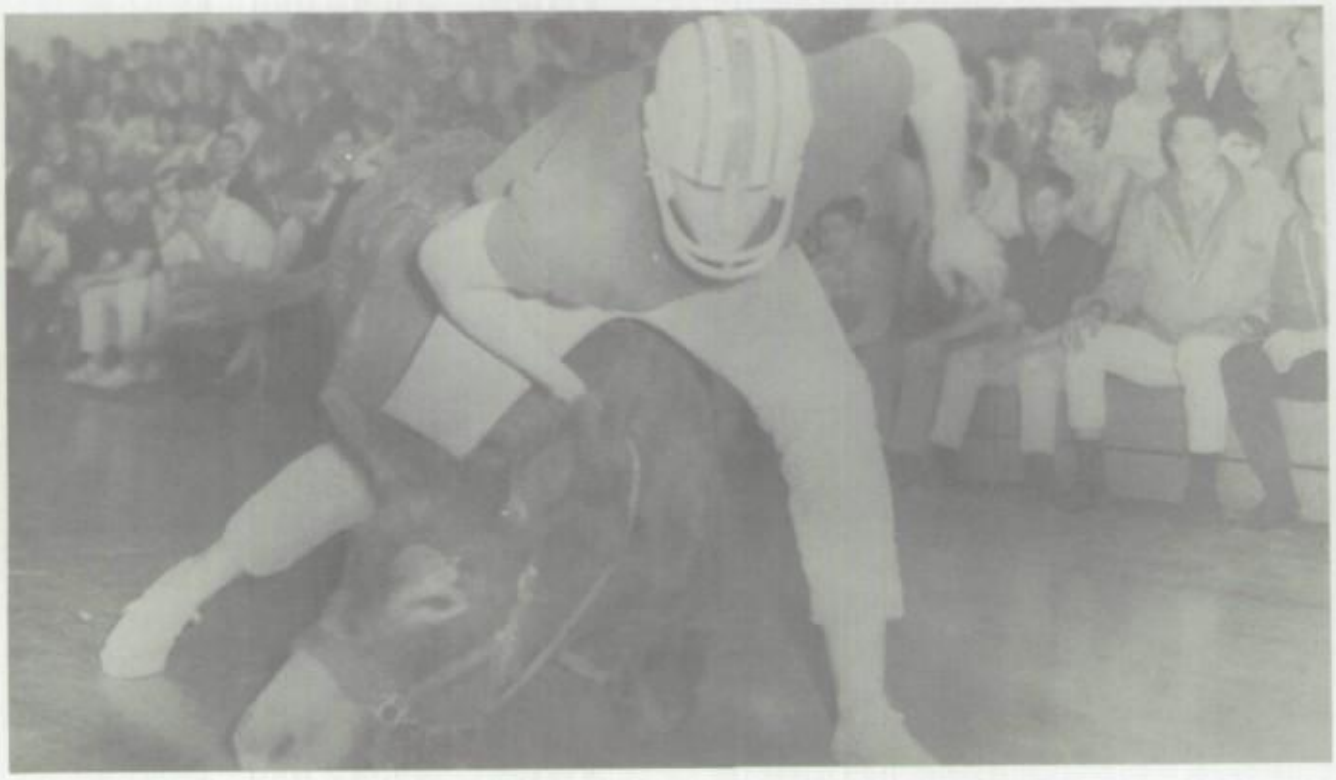
AFTER THE PROM was a combination of the After Prom Party, all-night vigils, early breakfasts, picnics, and parties. The After Prom Party, sponsored by the Junior Homeroom Mothers, was a pleasant follow-up to the formal atmosphere of the Prom. Palm trees and gay flowers adorned the middle school cafeteria and carried out the "Beach Party" theme. Talent was provided by the senior boys' Barbershop Quartet and Marianne Weber's Pot Pourris. Beachcombers danced to the music of the Disciples and the Up-Starts.





Orange students' social life is never limited to the dances, games, and the soc hops. Both students and faculty combined their skills this year to present a mock basketball game for the Chagrin pep rally. Coach Carroll, Rose Water Barth, et. al. spiced the rally. In the Donkey Basketball Game, contrary to popular opinion, the donkeys came out on top. In the spring students turned the tables by displaying their own talent in the Hootenanny and Talent Show. Seniors enjoyed their final "privilege" at the P.T.A. sponsored Senior Banquet. The food was good—the talent was great!

SPORTS

BASEBALL suffered this year from the loss of last year's seniors. Greg Potts, co-captain and first baseman, was the team's outstanding player. Don Hanzel, a sophomore, pitched a two-hitter in one of the season's highlights. Junior Bob Young added power to the lineup and was a major asset all season.

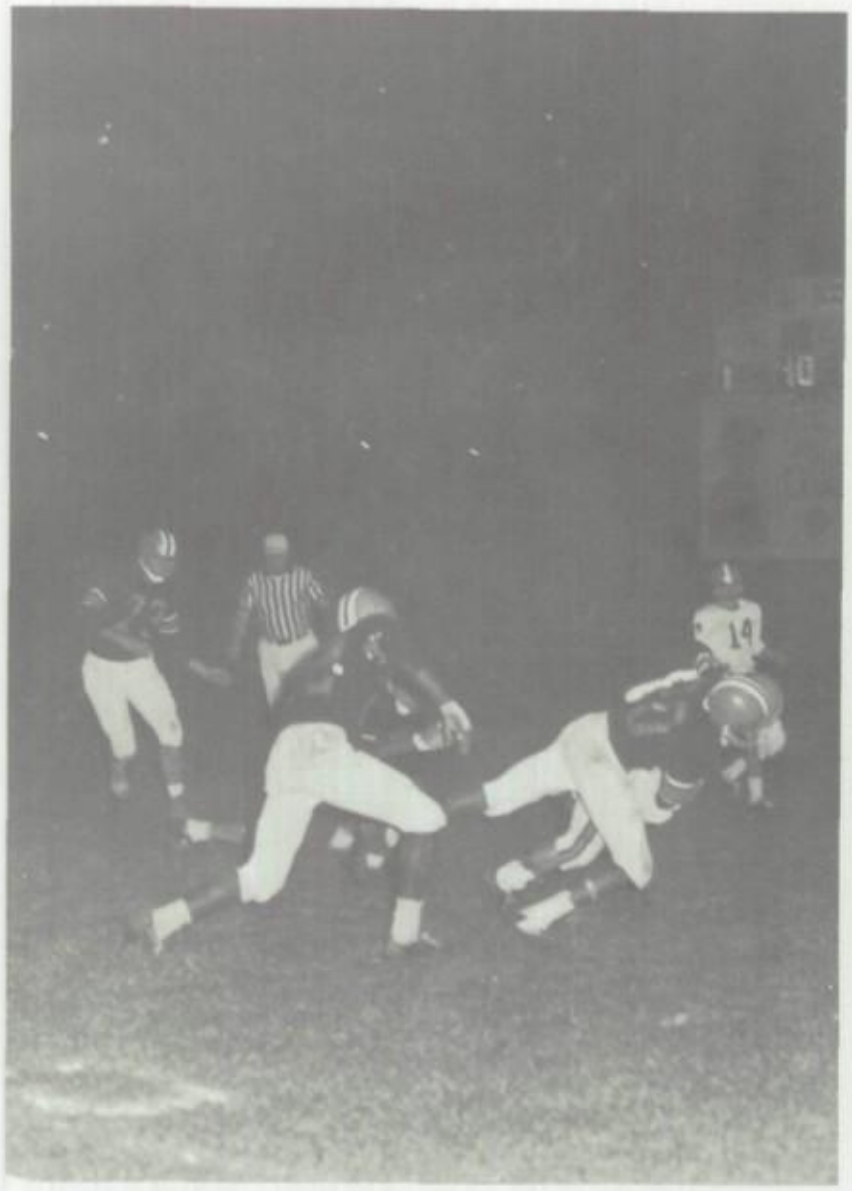
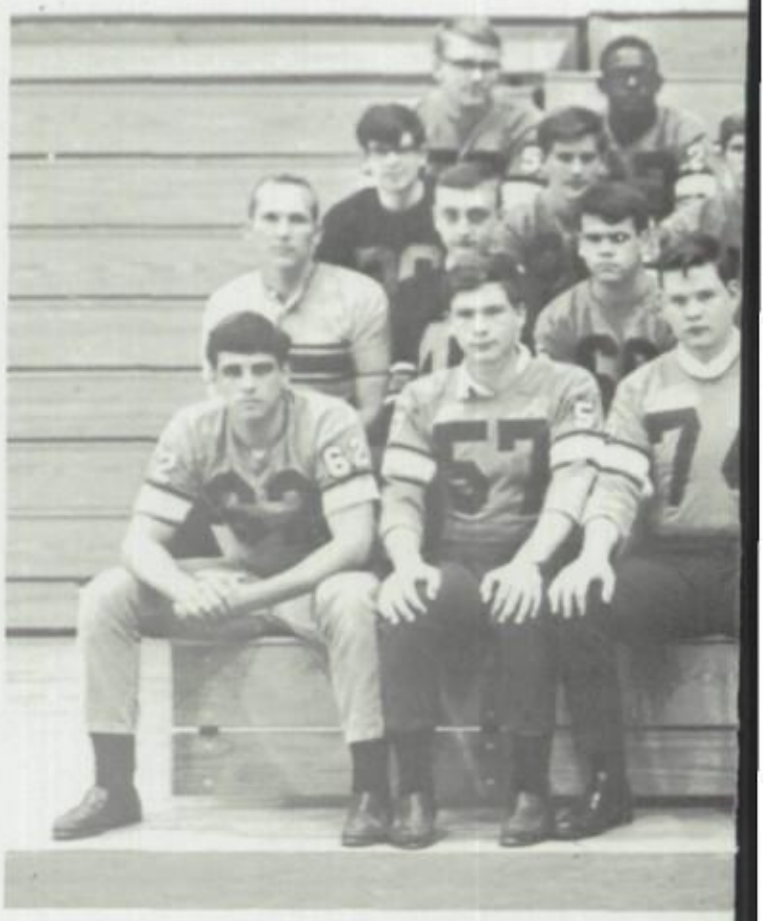
CROSS COUNTRY clinched second place in the Chagrin Valley Conference this year with an end-of-the-season victory over West Geauga. Outstanding runners were co-captains Steve Bayer, a sophomore, and Mike Doran, a junior. Hopes are high for next year, too, as only one member, Jim Radis, is leaving in June.





VARSITY FOOTBALL found new highs- and lows- this year. The small, inexperienced team, led by tri-captains Rick Morvilius, Dave Cameron, and Ken Wright, opened the season with three straight shut-outs and was ranked among the top twenty teams in Greater Cleveland. The streak was broken by a close twenty to fourteen loss to undefeated Solon in a hardfought game, called by one area football reporter one of the best high school games he'd ever seen. The loss to Solon was followed by a heartbreaking defeat at the hands of rival Chagrin. Representative of the paradoxes this year was Orange's tremendous defensive effort against West Geauga. The Pride held the league's leading rusher to under one hundred yards for the first time all season, only to lose six to nothing on a desperation pass.

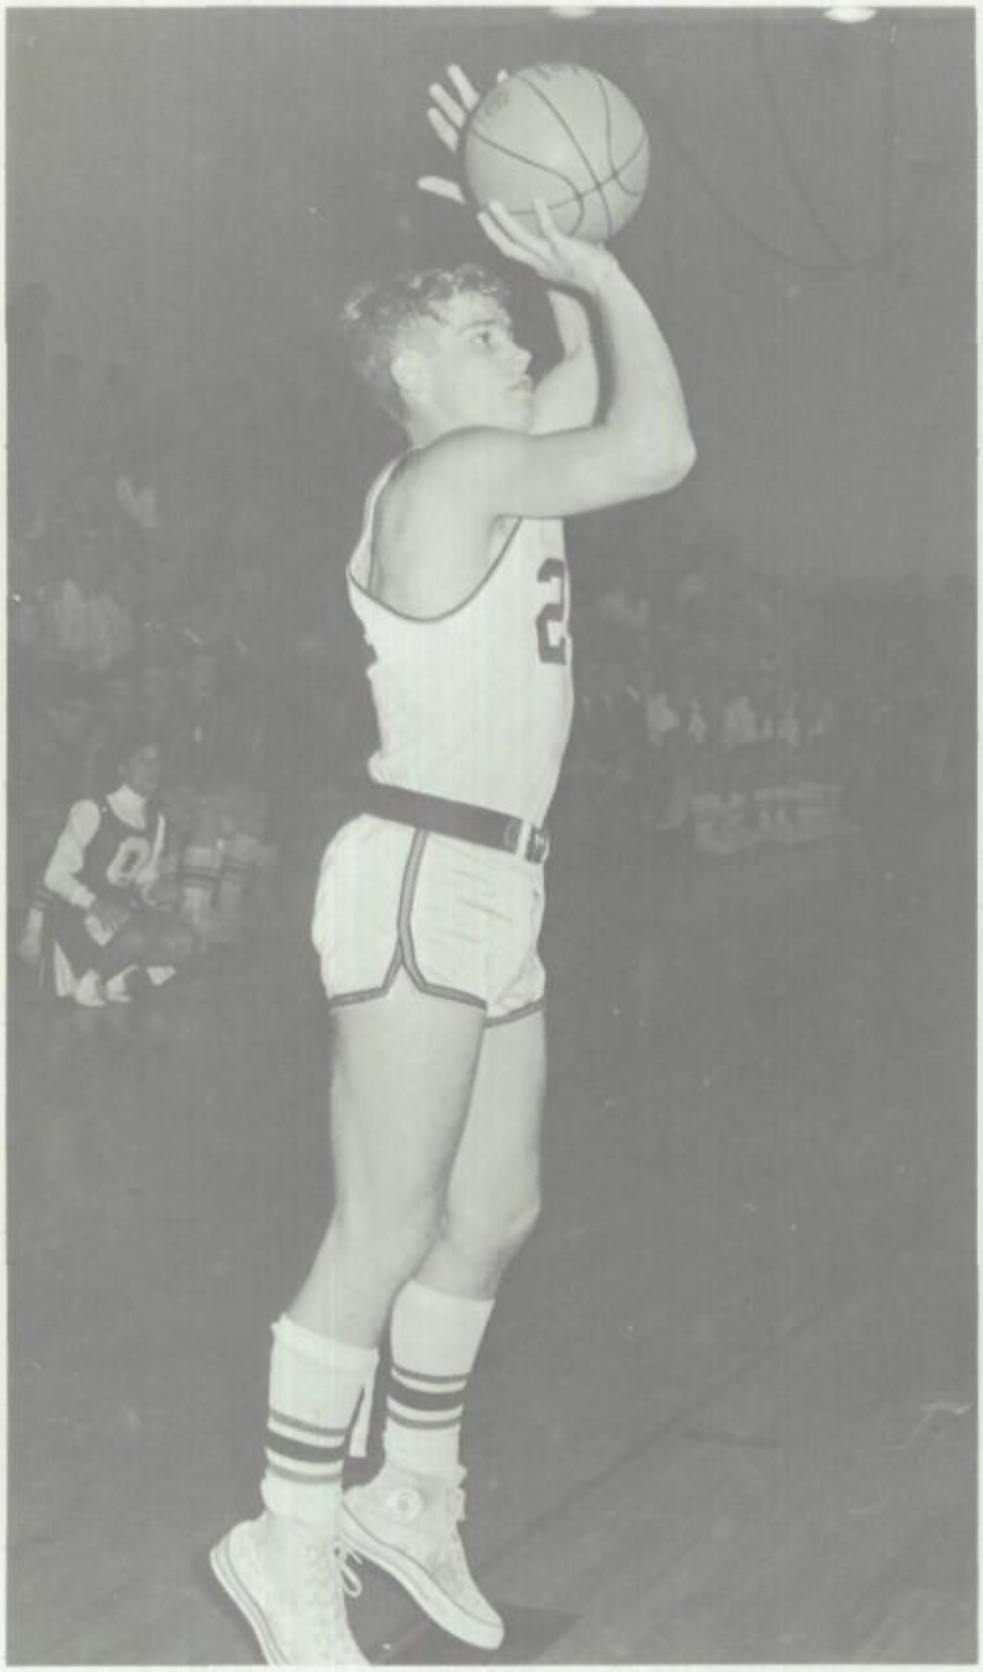
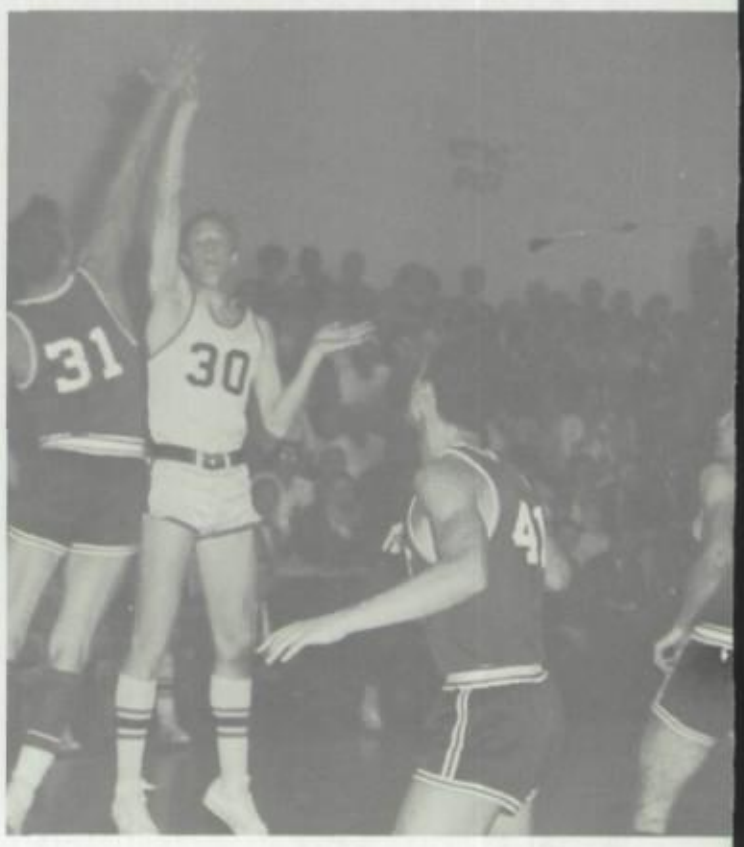
FRESHMAN FOOTBALL, under Coach Schoeppner, finished the season with a 3—1—1 ledger, good for second place in the league behind Chagrin. Although they started shakily, the Frosh fought back and finished strong, showing much promise for the future.





VARSITY BASKETBALL was confronted with their toughest schedule in many years—the Orange five had six games with teams in the area's top twenty. This difficulty was compounded by inexperience—none of last year's regulars were returning to the team. Six nerve racking games were lost by a total of eighteen points. Two of these were last-minute losses to West Geauga, who were sectional tournament champions. One was dropped in the closing seconds to the "River Rats" of Chagrin. The team began to work together with big wins over Kenston and Chagrin. However, in following losses to Solon and Maple Heights, who was ranked fourth in Greater Cleveland, the Pride lost its momentum. The team was led this year by captain Bill Maynard and junior Bob Young, who was named a Press Star and was the most outstanding player on the team.

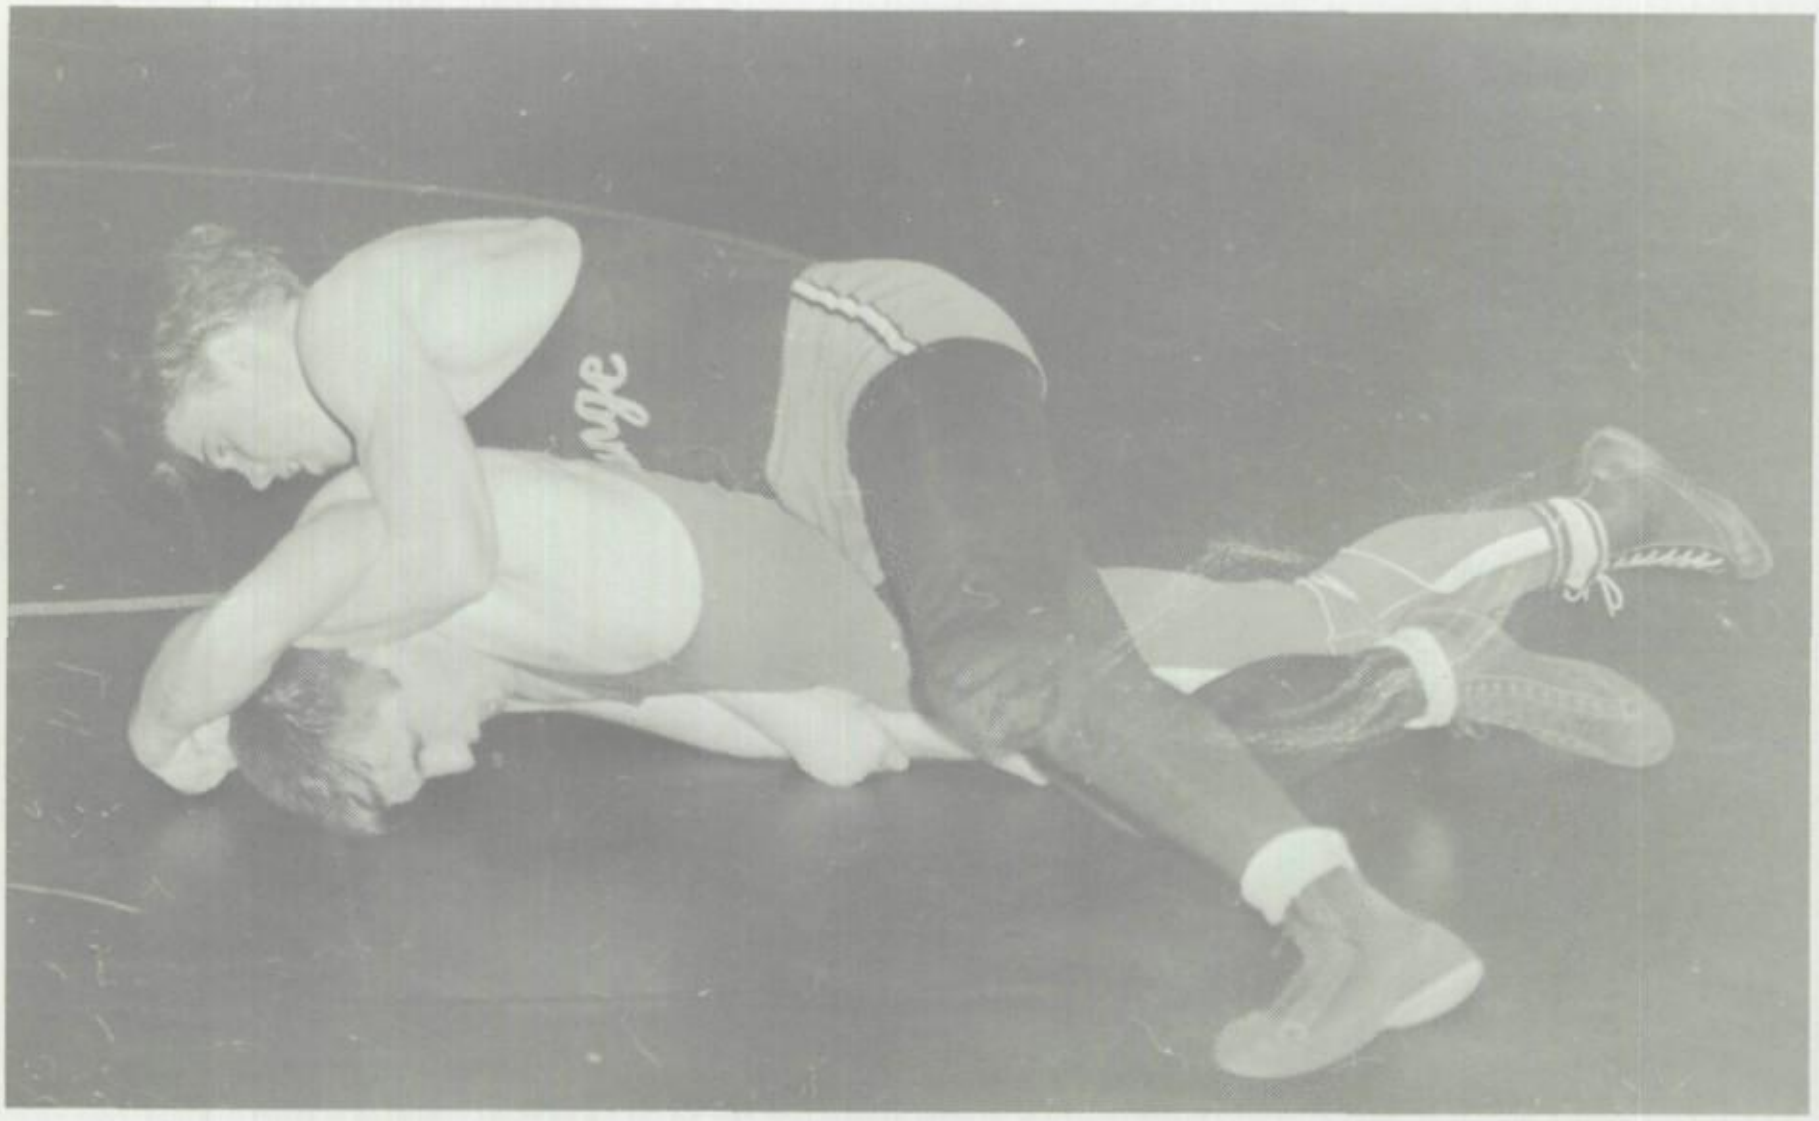
JUNIOR VARSITY

under Coach Csutoros, was highlighted by a tremendous upset over league-leading Solon. Sparked by Don Hanzel, Ken Shaw, and Fred Szabo, this victory was the Cubs' first over the Comets in five years. Other standouts during the year were Reggie Crosby and Joe Cala.



State finalist Dave Cameron

WRESTLING for Orange was a combination of both well experienced and inexperienced grapplers. The six senior wrestlers all had winning records. John Myers, wrestling in a very tough weight class, came through with some big wins. Rick Morvilius compiled a nine—one record, losing only to the eventual state champion. Dave Cameron was undefeated in dual matches for the second straight year. He won the District and Sectional Championships and went on to gain third in the state. He, too, lost only to the state champ.

TENNIS was all new. It was Coach Burkholder's first year, and there was only one returning letterman, yet the team racked up a nine and one record and beat Shaw for the first time in Orange history. The one loss was to Chagrin by a score of three to two—that one point relegated Orange to second place behind undefeated Chagrin. The "one returning letterman," Bill Kaspers, was captain, playing first singles. Highlight of the team was sophomore Steve Jobes, who was undefeated (10—0) his first year of varsity competition.

GOLF was a bright spot in Orange's sports efforts. The team finished with a nine-one record, capturing first place in league dual matches as well as in the league meet. Second place in the SOWBRAC meet also went to Orange, as did third in the Warrensville Invitational and fifth in the District. Sophomore Don Hanzel was the medalist in both the CVC and SOWBRAC matches. The other members of the "fearsome foursome" were Senior co-captains Jon Munson and Greg Potts, and Sophomore Joe Cala. Rounding out the squad were John Buchko, Henry Masek, "Topper" Crowther, Jeff Hanna, and Rich Cirincione.

TRACK team, led by juniors Spencer Crew, Reggie Crosby, and Bob Young, had its most successful season in many years. It placed first in the Warrensville Relays, second in the league dual meets, and third in the league meet. Several records were set as well. Steve Bayer, a sophomore, set a record for the two mile run. In the shot put, a twenty-three year old mark was broken by Bob Young. A new standard for the mile relay is held by Crosby, Crew, Craig Stine, and Mike Doran. Two mile relay record-breakers were Stine, Doran, Jeff Leavitt, and Rich Wrentmore. Also outstanding were performances by Jerry Turner, in the long jump, and Tom Harris, in the high hurdles. Sophomore Rich Whikehart, the surprise of the year, provided excellent depth in many events.

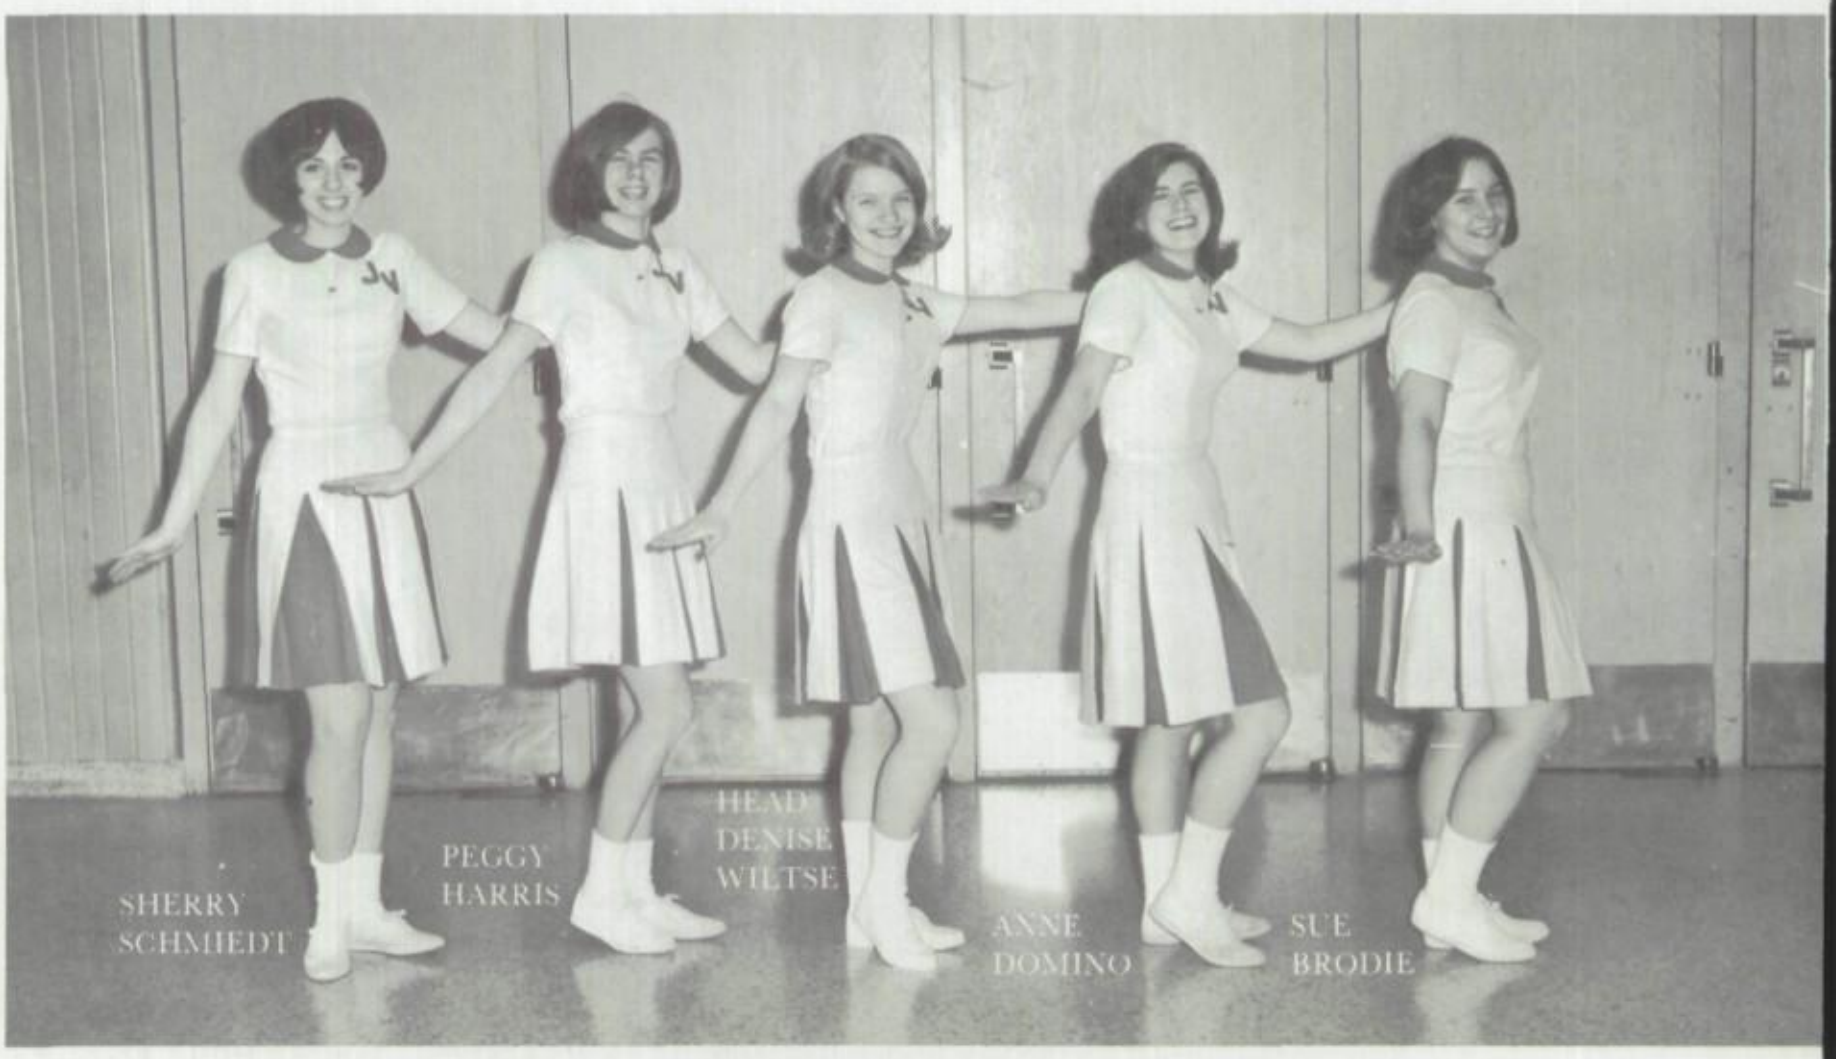
PEP CLUB, MAJORETTES, AND MARCHING BAND are three school organizations that support Orange's athletic teams with their attendance and their cheers. Both the Majorettes and the Marching Band provide stimulating halftime entertainment at the football games. In addition to promoting school spirit, the Pep Club plans pep rallies and organizes charter buses to distant away games.

TEAMBACKERS was a newly organized group at Orange this year. Its purpose was to promote pep and school spirit. It was made up of Junior and Senior girls chosen from Pep Club. They started a card section during basketball season.



J. V. CHEERLEADERS backed the junior varsity athletic teams in one of their most successful seasons. Headed by Denise Wiltse, the J.V. squad developed into a peppy and spirited unit.

CHEERLEADERS this year will remember the orange megaphones, bonfires, singing the Alma Mater on the bus, flashcard cheers, and "Starting Line" for the wrestlers at the matches. Spurred on by Pam Wise, the cheerleaders led Orange's athletics teams to victory. Their good sportmanship, pep, and ability to inspire the crowd brought the Gold Book Award back to Orange this year.

CHOIR, under the direction of Mr. John Everson, gave the annual Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Spring concerts. This year for the first time the choir entered the state contest and received an excellent rating. The choir, in addition, had three soloists who received superior ratings in the district contest—Lynn Metti, Wally Stromberg, and Bill Kaspers. The choir was also fortunate to have the unusual talents of Dale Caldwell for accompaniment.

GLEE CLUB

FOLKSINGING CLUB was the result of the hard work, planning, and organization of Chris Henry and Kris Crowther, who felt that the interest in folksinging at Orange warranted the formation of a club. Professional entertainment was featured along with local talent at several of their meetings and in the spring they put on a Hootenanny.

STAGE BAND is an innovation of Mr. Reik's at Orange. Their first performance was at the Spring Band Concert.

ORCHESTRA gives Orange students an opportunity to perform classical music. The orchestra performs at the annual band concert.

THE USHERETTES in their white blazers are a familiar sight at various school and community functions as they distribute programs, collect tickets and guide people to their seats. In addition to their ushering at Orange, several girls went downtown to usher at the Jennings lecture.

GALS are interested in sports and sportsmanship. In order to develop these interests they hold interscholastic playdays. Their sports include hockey and basketball, intramural teams in soccer, volleyball, badminton and softball.

AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE brought to Orange this year a Swiss Miss, Marian Weber. In addition to making trips to Greenfield Village and Oberlin College, she spoke at many community functions and attended countless teas and receptions. Orange's A.F.S. chapter also participated in exchange programs with other schools in which their foreign exchange students went through a day of classes at Orange. The student committee, along with the entire student body, tried to make Marianne's stay enjoyable and aided in the Americanization of Marianne.

SKI CLUB is a new club at Orange this year formed by enthusiasts of this exciting winter sport. They organized ski trips and watched movies to try to perfect their skiing techniques and form.

FRENCH CLUB alias "Le Circle Francais", is another new club at Orange this year. Their monthly meetings consisted of featured speakers and movies.

RIFLE CLUB, sponsored by Mr. Larson, is a member of the National Rifle association. The members participate in intra-club competition as well as in league matches. Five of the boys achieved their expert marksmen ratings during the past year.

THE LIGHT CREW performs many valuable services for the school. The members work during school plays, concerts, assemblies and various other functions.

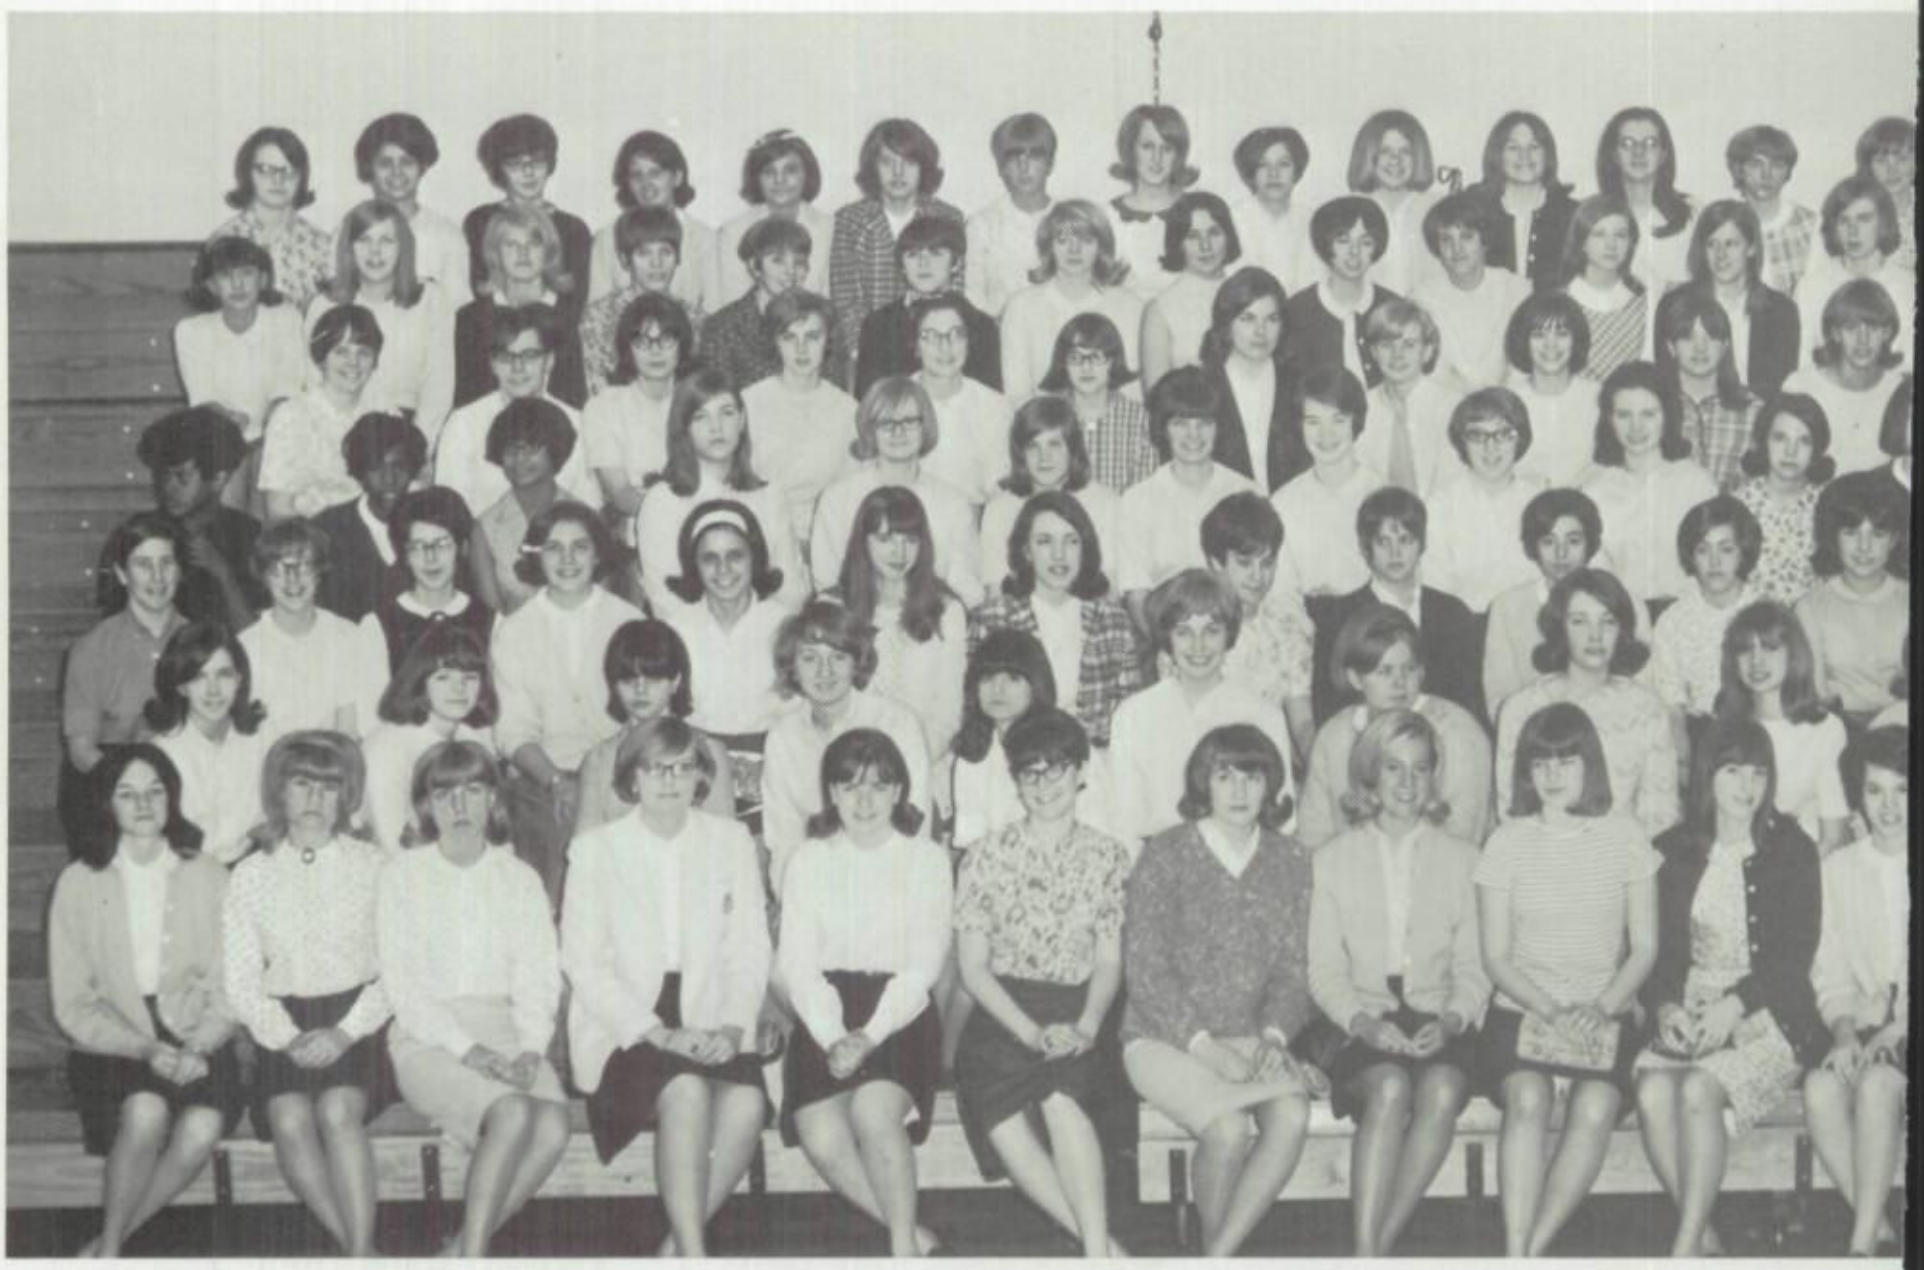
RADIO CLUB, sponsored by Mr. Lockert, meets in a cubby hole on the second floor. Here they assemble radios, operate a station, and have ham radios set up.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB is a special interest group for those students who want to learn the procedures and techniques of photography. Photographers take pictures at all school functions, and their products can be seen in Highlights and the Oran.

LIBRARY ASSISTANTS work in the library each period. They check books in and out and in addition they aid the librarians by filing and shelving books. Other duties consist of taking attendance sheets to study halls. For this year's big thrill the library assistants visited the Cleveland Press building.

Two students can be seen stationed in the halls each period. They welcome and conduct visitors through the school, take messages, run errands, and check parking stickers and car lights. They are HALL GUARDS.

OFFICE ASSISTANTS' duties consist of: typing for the Guidance Office, answering the phone, running errands, filing catalogues, and taking messages. This year as a special project they made a large map of the United States pinpointing the locations of the senior college acceptances.

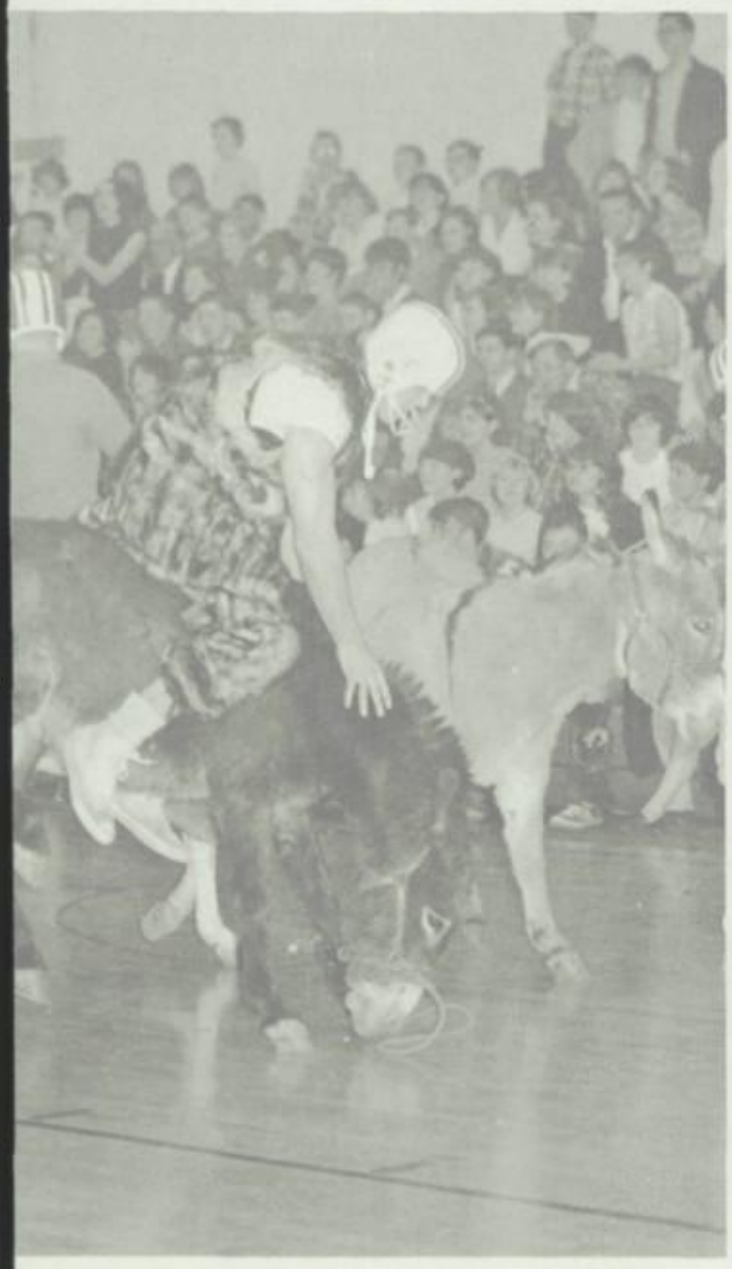


Y-TEENS 65-66 school year was filled with varied activities. They participated in many bake sales, service projects, and were responsible for the decorations at the Winter Formal. The annual fashion show highlighted the spring activities. This year two members were chosen to attend the national conference at Lake Erie College. In addition, the Y-Teens brought many exceptional and interesting speakers to Orange. The club was guided by the experienced and enthusiastic hands of Miss Richison and Mrs. Brookes to whom they are deeply indebted.

F. T. A. members observe and assist elementary and junior high teachers in preparation for teaching careers. The officially approved student tutors come from the ranks of the Future Teachers of America.

F. N. A. this year journeyed to the Cleveland Clinic. Its members made favors for a hospital and collected canned goods for needy families. Many of these future nurses volunteer at hospitals as Candy Stripers.

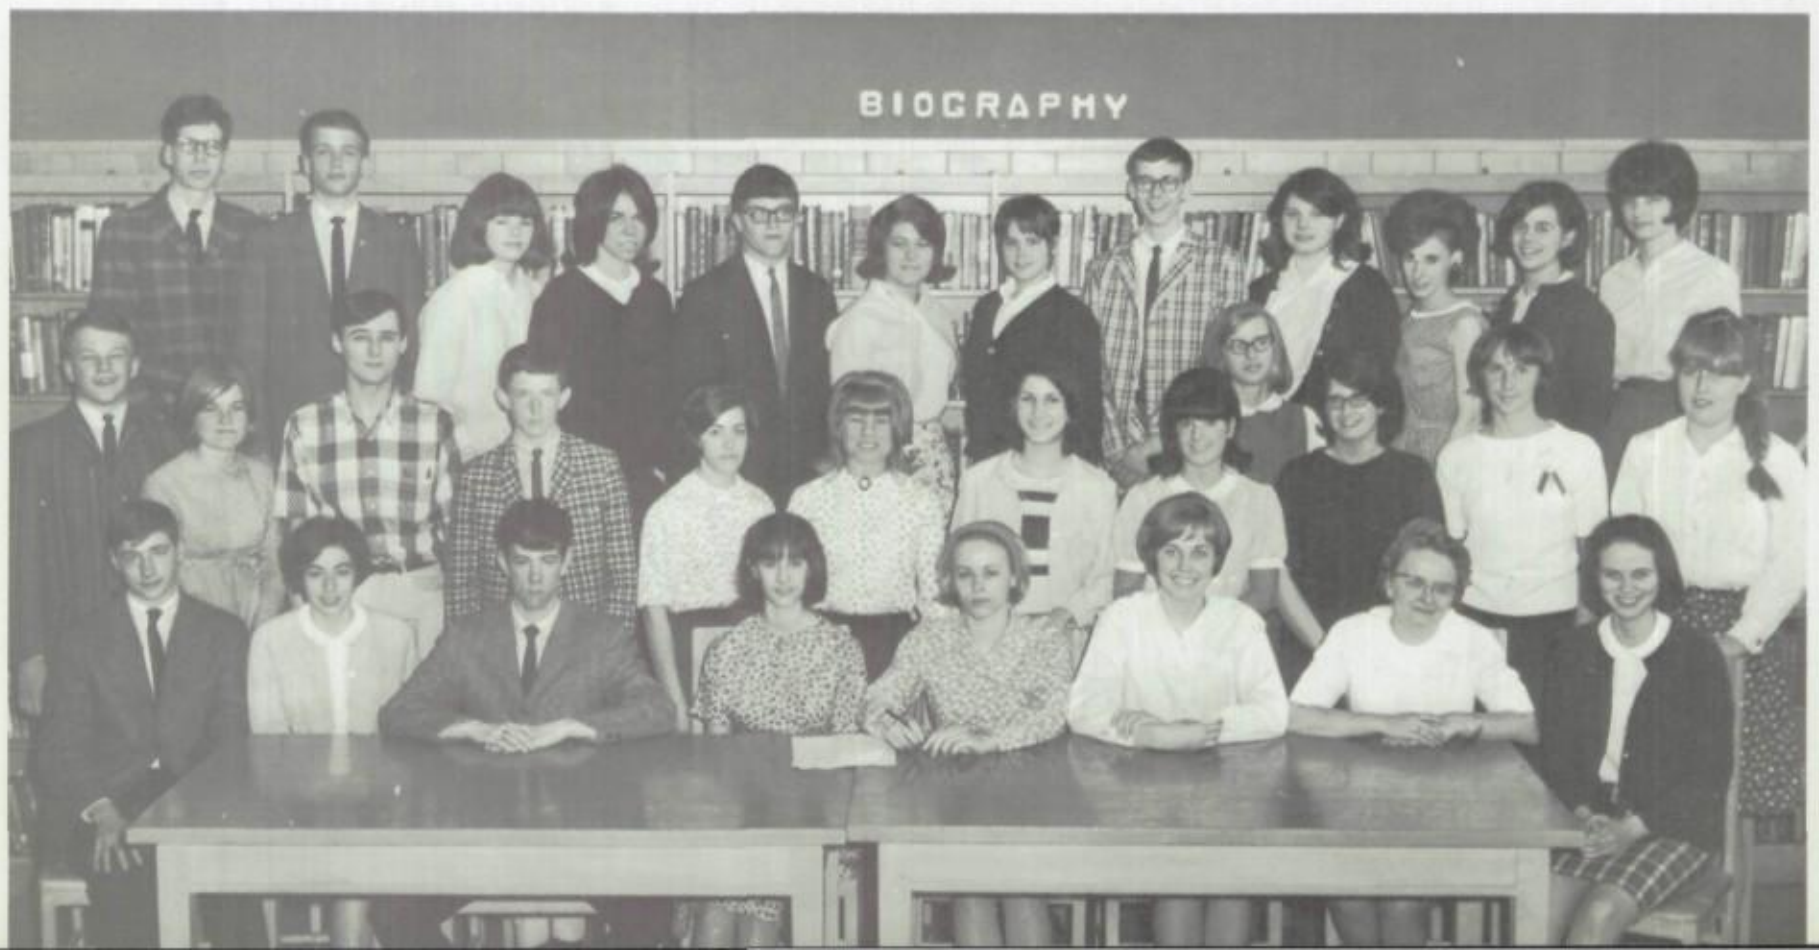
RED CROSS CLUB is made up of members of Mrs. Hawn's home economics classes. The club belongs to the National Red Cross.



STUDENT COUNCIL under the efficient direction of Don Peyser, was an active and important organization. They sponsored the annual Welcome Dance, Homecoming Dance, Talent Show, and Orange's first Donkey Basketball Game. In addition to their other duties, they drew up the final plans for the student lounge, that will hopefully be ready for use this fall. In the summer, the Council operates the pool's refreshment stand. The funds from all these money raising events go toward the support of A.F.S., Scribes and Scribblers, Highlights, service clubs, and Teresa, our foster child.

SCRIBES AND SCRIBBLERS, turned out its first printed edition this year. The staff, headed by editor Ed Claffin, read countless compositions in order to pick out only the finest for publication. The literary efforts and talented artwork of Orange students combined to present an excellant potpourri of high school literature. Additional praise must also go to their advisor, Miss Carroll, whose aid was invaluable.

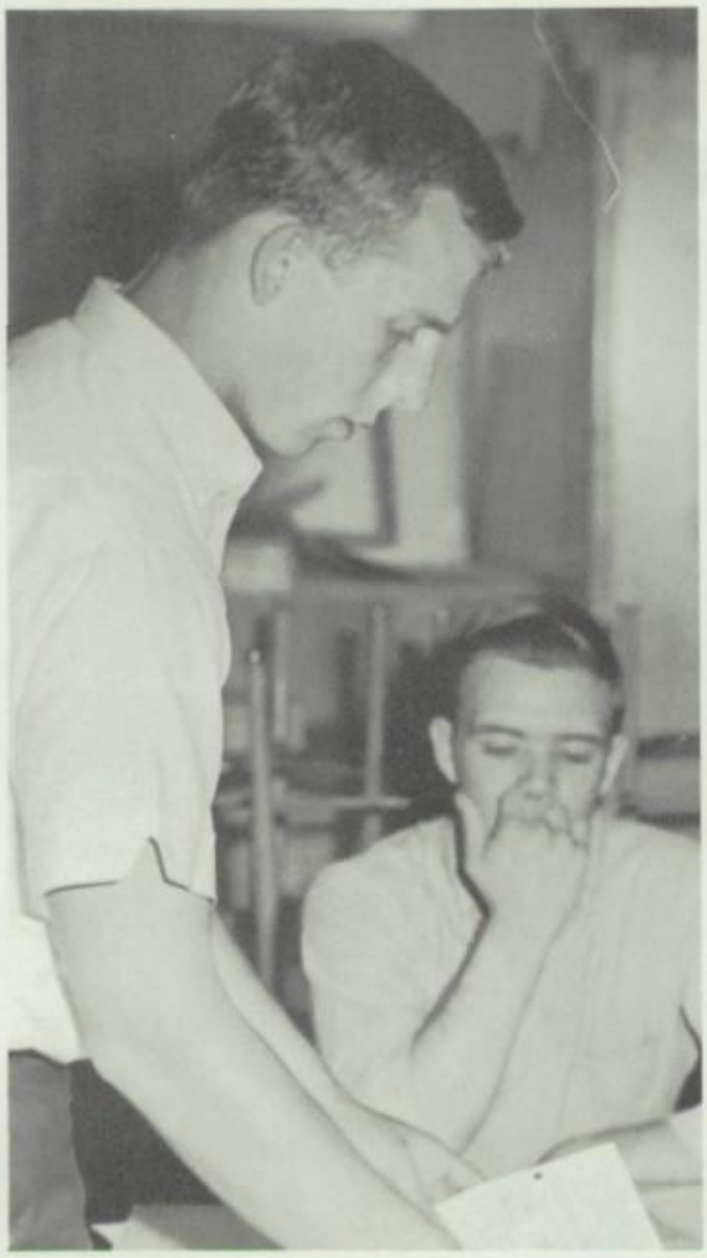
HIGHLIGHTS is a bi-weekly newspaper printed by the journalism class under the experienced direction of Mrs. Rose Barth. This year with the help of Kris Crowther and Chris Henry the paper was printed with photographs for the first time in Orange's history.



J. C. W. A., consisting of eighty-nine members, had a variety of speakers this year including college students from India and Indonnesia. The Information Assistant from the British Consulate, and our own Miss Macey. The Orange delegation to the Model U.N., representing the United Kingdom, was ranked as one of the top ten delegations and Steve Nigolian won the position of Assistant to The Secretary General. Liz Stein was the winner of the annual Washington-New York trip.

DEBATE CLUB has as its motto "it is better to debate a question without settling it, than to settle it without debate." This club teaches one to think fast and develop poise. Spurred on by Mr. Burkholder the Debate Club had a busy and successful season. This year the club argued the merits of compulsory arbitration amongst themselves and with other schools.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY under the leadership of Miss McKillip and inept president Wally Stromberg, again this year had another fantastically successful year. Their widely-acclaimed parties, including a toboggan get-together and a picnic at Mentor Headlands, were the social events of the year. In addition to their annual assembly and banquet, the Honor Society gave a Christmas party at the Cleveland State Mental Hospital and furnished a lounge there. This year the senior members of the society were distinguished by being adorned with gold honor guards at Commencement.



THE ORAN staff managed by editor Jon Munson, attempted to compile the excitement and the experiences of the year into a book of memories. This year's Oran is hopefully more complete and yet different than those of the past. The many hours of work put in by the staff members, copywriting, lay-out drawing, and selling ads netted the final organized product despite the frustrations, confusion, and worries of the final hours. The Oran staff gives a heartfelt thanks to our immortal leader and friend Mr. Alan Larson.

ENGLISH, as a written and as a spoken language, is presented to the students of Orange as a challenge to creative ability as well as an exploration into the literary heritage of our culture. Under the auspices of Mrs. Barth, head of the English Department, students publish a bi-weekly newspaper, and a literary magazine composed of student work is produced under the direction of Miss Carroll. Add to these extra activities outside field trips, and one can readily understand why Orange is able to give its students a worthy challenge.

LANGUAGE is more than a study of words. It is a comprehensive study of the medium of communication and a key to understanding foreign cultures, peoples, histories, and civilizations. Under the guidance of Mr. Marrapodi, the language Department offers French, Latin, and Spanish to the students of Orange. A language lab enables the students to explore their chosen languages beyond the classroom. The formation of a language club further expands the learning possibilities and enhances the learning process.

THE JOHN KEATS FAN CLUB

"The Boys in My Little Girls Life"

1. The boys in my little girls life,
   The boys in my little girls life,
   This is the introduction,
   This is the introduction.

2. Daddy, there's a boy outside
   His name is Rod,
   He wants to play in our back yod.
   Can he Daddy, can he Daddy?
   Why the 'hell' not?

3. Daddy, there's a boy outside,
   His name is "White Socks" Kowalski.
   He wants to go bowling with me.
   Can he Daddy, can he Daddy?
   So what if he's Italian?

4. Daddy, there's a boy outside,
   His name is Shirley.
   He acts kind of funny.

"Ode to the Specifics of Life in General"

I sit by the river bank, a purple tennis Shoe in one hand, a miniscule refrigerator in the other.
I would gladly trade four pennies
For my mother.

The cold-air furnace that shakes the world's park
Unleashes its ballast on your friend Nooh Zark.
And you are still standing up,
But everyone else is still standing down by the Blind pencil vendor.

"Ode to Time, Space, Food, Matter, and Mother Image"

"Beneath a still cement mixer
I sing carols of Christmastide.
Government is but a table-
Top of which sits the spilled
Oatmeal of Time. I see,
Leave, return, and go. Yet
The tide of Time replaces
Everything, while a cattle car
Rumbles through the pomegranet
Which is Space. The third
Volume of Boyle's Atomic Number
Of cherry tomatoes rests on
The window-sill. But the Brussel-sprout of matter grows
Even higher," said Mom.

"Ode to Morality"

O! If Nathanial Hawthorne ever knew
  Of the immoral things this world do!
Then, girls would do no wrong
  And the bad guys wouldn't last long.
Then, Hestor Prynne got her scarlet A,
  Now, she'd be lucky to get a C+!
(Author's note: And that's grading on the curve)

"Ode to Odor"

Of after-shaves, which is the best?
English Leather, Jade East or West?
Then there is Old Spice, and others I've met,
And what's the matter with plain Old Sweat?
